Amdocs is a community-based physician services group providing primary care through a shared group practice model in remote and northern Canadian communities. Integrated advanced managed care solutions are proving successful in changing the outcome of disease as well as changing the communities outlook concerning their own health - "one patient, one doctor, and one community at a time".

Amdocs, founded by Dr. Anthon Meyer in 2000, was acquired by The North West Company in the fall of 2009. The North West Company provides Amdocs ideal support with its substantial infrastructure on the ground in a number of First Nations communities which gives Amdocs a tremendous advantage delivering health programming through people, process, technology and infrastructure.

Amdocs is expanding and as our program continues to grow we are actively seeking qualified family physicians to join our medical team to provide services in fly-in, fly-out communities in Northern Ontario and Manitoba.

Amdocs prides itself in delivering high quality family physician services in an environment that includes;

- a patient-centered approach

To advance and provide comprehensive and innovative patient-centered health services and products that improve quality of life delivered by a skilled clinical and integrated health care team.

Compassion + Care + Competence

Amdocs' support allows each practitioner to function at the top of his or her license. Much of Amdocs' historical success is built on collaborative efforts where physicians play the pivotal role in creating a supportive environment that allows service delivery by the most appropriate member of a multi-professional team. This ultimately leads to better adherence to practice guidelines and better patient outcomes.

Through a team-healthcare approach, Amdocs physicians are able to change health outcomes – improving health one patient, one community at a time. Amdocs' care model, which integrates managed care solutions, is proving successful in changing the outcome of disease as well as changing communities' outlooks concerning their own health. Comprehensive healing relationships and a focus on wellness are vastly superior to brief moments of in-person patient visits.

Amdocs specializes in comprehensive integrated practice, using diagnostic capability, pharmacy services, Telehealth, and a full continuum of skilled health professionals working in a collaborative practice mode—responsive to physician needs and concerns. The delivery of high quality family physician services includes chronic disease management, and practice consultant support for nurse clinician services.

Amdocs offers a professional challenge as well as a supportive and friendly work environment. I find ample time to further my education and pursue other personal goals... and I work on the edge of a beautiful lake. In a nutshell, a physician's heaven!

Dr. Daniel Botha MBChB, CCFP
Amdocs Physician

I feel like I am contributing and making a difference in the wellbeing of a community that needs me. Amdocs is an organization that respects my input as a physician and supports me on a daily basis.

Dr. Robert Allen MD, CCFP
Amdocs Physician

Working in sparsely-populated communities offers opportunities for contemplation and reflection – rarely found in urban centres.

Most Amdocs physicians fly in and out of the remote communities they serve on a weekly basis.

A place to make a positive difference

Amdocs is a very professional group to work with... making a real difference in the lives of patients, and offering a congenial atmosphere for family practise.

Dr. Ekow Barnes

Seeking qualified family physicians for the opportunity of a lifetime

Amdocs is looking for qualified physicians who are dedicated to family practice. If you are a doctor looking to make a real difference in the community you serve—impacting the outcome of disease, preventing and reducing risk to the health of individuals through a patient-centered approach, and working with an organization whose goal it is to reduce health inequalities in the North—then Amdocs might be the new practice environment you are looking for.

Amdocs' physicians focus their practice on comprehensive healing relationships and wellness care, rather than isolated short moments of in-person patient visits.

We offer:

- Annual package starting at 360K+
- Collegial support
- No overhead
- Signing and retention bonuses
